as a delightful / Bishop
innocent day out when I first saw it and
wondered how people
couldn't get a short essay out on the author's skills. Now the intent of the poem is,
apparently, to
communicate the
sexual abuse of a young girl - I haven't found any "facts" that prove this, but there

Regional Indian poetry, always a redemptive
force, glistens with
mango verses - flower,
fruit, leaf, bark appear
in elliptical stanzas,
demolishing the clichés shrouding their
potency in novels.

Poem: Mangoes. Oh!
The season has come.
For the king of fruits.
The one that lifts my mood. And it is my favourite without any dispute. Every bite of a mango gives different flavours to me. Be it tangy, sweet or sour. I am bound to make
faces. and if its sweet, my favourite, I will for sure devour. Children
